BRIEFING BY THE CITY MANAGER

City Manager Neiditz assured the Council that budget revenues and expenditures are carefully monitored and staff is closely monitoring the Governor's budget. A review of the Governor's proposal indicate that the liquor profit sharing tax is no longer being proposed to be cut so it is not slated for reduction from Lakewood's budget. The excise tax of $300,000 is still proposed for elimination, streamline tax is proposed to be reduced $6,500 and criminal justice funds is not being reduced.

City Manager Neiditz indicated that "Today In America" approached the City to promote Lakewood by producing a video and if Lakewood is selected and pay a portion of the production cost ($19,800) the City would become the owner of the video and it would be broadcasted 20 times throughout the nation. He asked if the Council was interested in producing such a video utilizing the lodging tax reserve. Discussion ensued on what the City would do with the video afterwards and what was the goal for its use; the City having some control of the content of the video and working with Buxton; with resources being limited, and consideration be given to fully funding the lodging tax projects that were not fully funded, such as funding for a signature event.

City Manager Neiditz requested an Executive Session.
