CALL TO ORDER

Mayor Anderson called the meeting to order at 7:02 p.m.

ROLL CALL

Councilmembers Present: 7 – Mayor Don Anderson; Deputy Mayor Jason Whalen; Councilmembers Mary Moss, Mike Brandstetter, John Simpson, Marie Barth and Paul Bocchi.

Lakewood's Promise Advisory Board Members Present: 6- Chair Clayton DeNault; Board Members Elvin Bucu, Mary Dodsworth, Lonnie Howard, Judi Weldy and Ellie Wilson.

ITEMS FOR DISCUSSION:

Joint Lakewood's Promise Advisory Board meeting.

City Council and Lakewood's Promise Advisory Board Members introduced themselves.

Chair DeNault reviewed the major accomplishments of the Board. Lakewood's Promise Coordinator Kurt Sample provided an overview of the Lakewood's Promise website showing a map depicting where early learning programs are offered in Lakewood, where 6-11 age children's activities, teen activities, volunteer opportunities, and youth activities are occurring in Lakewood. Board Member Bucu spoke about last year's efforts being focused on safe places by creating an inventory and afterschool late night programs. Board Member Wilson spoke about the "caring adult" promise by providing a caring adult for serving as mentors and tutors. Board Member Weldy spoke about the healthy start task force who are focusing on healthy eating and eliminating food waste. Board Member Howard spoke about educational outcomes at the secondary level, and how to blend work force development with economic development. Board Member Dodsworth spoke about utilizing the Youth Council in the Five Promises.

Discussion ensued on how does the work force development with economic development program work; creating a web page open to youth as an introduction to invite other youths to higher education sites; providing for the ability to track "safe places" on the Promise website; involving the Police Department in the safe place programs; what synergy will the new Harrison Preparatory School have with being in close proximity to Clover Park Technical College; potentially using public buildings (ie schools, etc.) as safe place facilities; and what is considered a successful safe place.

Council recessed at 8:10 p.m. and reconvened at 8:16 p.m.

Review of the 2014 Comprehensive Plan amendments.

Assistant City Manager Bugher provided the Council with copies of the 2014 Comprehensive Plan details. He reviewed the Planning Advisory Board's seven recommendations consisting of the Ruby Drive Apartments, Pacific Highway zoning changes, Department of Transportation property, Wards Lake Park, Springbrook Park expansion, Pacific Highway SW property, and Chapters 2, 3, 5, 7 of the Comprehensive Plan. He reviewed the key points of the proposed Comprehensive Plan amendments.

Discussion ensued on how the 2014 Comprehensive Plan and visioning process helps to build on the 2015 Comprehensive Plan; what kind of agencies might raise concerns about the housing section of the Comprehensive Plan; possibly including an affirmative statement for maintaining low income housing; and is there liability when a developer has a vested building permit and its zoning is changed.

Review of the 2014 budget amendments.

Assistant City Manager for Finance & Administrative Services Kraus reviewed the 2014 budget amendments including revenue increases of $23,000 and an increase of $181,000 in expenditures.
